"A devastating attack on those who believe that modern science can give a complete explanation of the origins of the Universe"

— Sir Bernard Lovell, FRS, University of Manchester

David Block is an astronomer and highly sought after motivational speaker, who has devoted over 30 years to encouraging audiences around the globe to always look up – and to never, never, never give up! He speaks from the heart, sharing in-depth lessons from his world of research. In 2013, Professor Block was acclaimed by BHP Billiton and the Natural Science and Technology Forum as South Africa's foremost Communicator of Science.

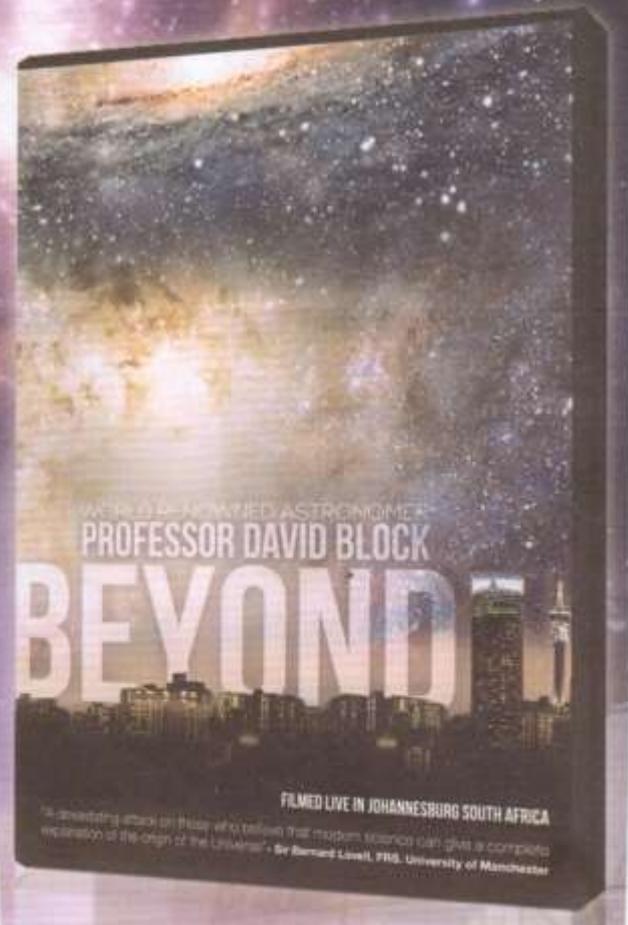

"One of South Africa's greatest jewels, an ambassador for astronomy"

— Debra Elmegreen,
Former President of the American Astronomical Society

"A phenomenal Jewish scientist and a follower of Jesus Christ. This combination makes Professor Block a powerful tool for the advance of the Gospel"

— Wikus Stander,
Pastor, Godfirst Montecasino
