

Satan, or Adversary, is the most frequently used name for the Devil in the New Testament, appearing over fifty times. Devil, or Slanderer, is used over thirty times. Satan, the personification of evil in this world, is the great super-human enemy of God, His people, and all that is good. His character is vile and evil, and he is portrayed as the great deceiver. So sly is Satan in his deception that he sometimes transforms himself into an angel of light (2 Cor. 11:14).

Regarded by many scholars as a fallen angel, Satan has a continuing ambition to replace God and have others worship him (Matt. 4:8, 9). He constantly tempts people to try to entice them into sin (1 Thess. 3:5). In falling from God's favor, Satan persuaded other angels to join him in his rebellion (Rev. 12:9). When Christ returns, Satan will be defeated and ultimately cast into the lake of fire (Rev. 20:1-10).

The following names or titles for Satan in the New Testament throw further light on the Devil's character.

...you, teachers of the Law and Pharisees you hypocrites! You clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of greed and self-love."
Matthew 23:25

DANIEL 12 |
...of those who sleep in the earth shall awake, to everlasting life, (John 5:28, 29) ... who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the firmament, and who turn many to righteousness. - Matt. 13:43 (James 5:19, 20) stars forever and ever'

"When you fast, do not look sombre (i.e. don't show it) as the hypocrites do, for they disfigure their faces to show men they are fasting. I tell you the truth, they have received their reward in full. But when you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face, so that it will not be obvious to men that you are fasting, but only to your Father, who is unseen; and your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you". Matthew 6:16-18

Satan not only disguises himself; he also disguises his intentions. He didn't tell Eve that he was out to destroy her and bring misfortune on all future generations. Instead, he made a religious approach, using the Word of God, but twisting it to fit his purpose.
